LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

—Poultry wanted by Couch & Baldwin.

—Harvey will have a fresh supply of Thanksgiving Oysters.

—Highest market price paid for poultry, by Couch & Baldwin.

—A choice lot of Tobacco at A. P. Dimock's, at jobbers' prices.

—For lamps and fixtures, see the new stock at J. W. Houghton's.

—Ten thousand turkeys wanted, by Couch & Baldwin.

—In getting ready for winter, do not forget to renew your subscription to the Enterprise.

—The ladies of the Congregational Church, will hold a Fair two weeks previous to the Holidays.

—For stationery, school books, and all school supplies, go to Houghton's drug and book store.

—Paper in quarter ream packages and in smaller quantities cheaper than ever before known, at Houghton's.

—Go and see the new goods, too numerous to mention, at Houghton's drug and book store.

—When you are in town stop at A. P. Dimock's cigar and tobacco store; he has got something to show you.

—The home paper is the one you can least afford to spare. Send in your subscriptions and renewals.

—Go to the new Cigar and Tobacco Store, and get some of that 50 cent Tobacco.

—Couch & Baldwin are going to buy all the turkeys in the country.

—A full assortment of writing and copying fluids and inks, pens, pencils, for sale at Houghton's.

—Wick-ed things which even good people allow and enjoy—lamps. You can get them at Houghton's.

—A fine line of Thanksgiving Candles, at Everett & Starr's. Try them and be convinced.

—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. Benham, will take place from her late residence at 11:45 to-day. Burial in Cleveland.

—The poem "Success," published last week, should have been credited to our contributor, "A. A."

—In the Fargo, Dakota, Times of Nov. 18th, sent us by S. S. Parker, we notice the dedication of a new Presbyterian house of worship, to which the Church Extension Society contributed $800.

—Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Congregational Church at 11 A. M. Rev. J. A. Daly preaching the sermon. In the evening a union meeting will be held at the M. E. Church.

—Mr. E. J. Fleury, traveling in the interests of the Penny Press, called on us Monday. He reports a circulation for their little daily of 15,000, and constantly increasing. It is a lively, wide awake paper and has already made a creditable success.

—Mr. S. D. Bacon has bought in Richland county, 150 fine sheep, which makes his flock number 260 or more.

—F. B. Manley is said to have a fine flock less in number, but perhaps heavier in weight. If dogs could read, we would never dare publish such an item as this.

—Brainard's Musical World, besides giving much more than its cost in new sheet music, has the most readable titles in the way of biographies of composers and musicians, current news and gossip on musical matters, educational hints and everything pertaining to a first-class musical journal and review.

—Arrangements have been made to have the corner stone of the new Court House laid, on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, at two o'clock in the afternoon, with appropriate ceremonies by the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio F. & A. Masons. This is an event in which all the citizens of the county are interested, and that all may have an opportunity to witness and participate in said ceremonies, the citizens of Lorain county generally, and all civic societies, are invited to be present on that day.

—In order to get it in this week's paper, we are obliged to give only the brief facts of a communication telling of a family reunion planned to surprise Mr. Wm. Langdon of Peru, on his 60th birthday, Saturday, Nov. 16th.

—Over 40 relatives and friends were present, including two brothers from Lima and Van Wert, with their families, and friends from LaGrange and Wellington. Some of them had not met for nearly 20 years. A large gay chair was among the nice presents given Mr. Langdon. The wife and daughter had just arrived, besides the daughter, which was highly appreciated by their guests, who united in wishing their host many happy returns.

—Personal.

—Hor. James Monroe and wife and daughter, will leave Oberlin for Washington, November 26th.

—Frank Daugherty has been appointed night operator in the telephone office at Berea Station, on the C. C. & I. R. R.

—Mrs. T. H. Hand, mother of Mrs. W. H. Fisher, slipped on the sidewalk last Thursday morning, dislocating her wrist and breaking one of the bones.

—Mrs. Benham, for a long time in failing health, was so weak and low Sunday morning that her absent daughters were telegraphed for and came home. She died Tuesday evening at half past eight.

—S. S. Parker reached home from Dakota, Monday morning, and after a continuous ride of over 1100 miles, pronounced himself as quite fresh and vigorous. He intends to return in the Spring.

—Mrs. Amanda Smith, the colored singer and evangelist, has gone to India with Mrs. Drake, a returning missionary, who together will make Bountay a center of evangelistic work, both being very successful in the pulpit as well as out of it.

—N. G. Hoyt, who at one time owned the place where D. T. Bush now lives, and later other property in Wellington, died suddenly last Saturday at his home East Ave., Elyria. He was the father of Mrs. James Penfield of this village, and three of his sons are conductors on the L. S. & M. S. R. R. His age was 70 years, and his death was caused by congestion of the lungs.

—Wm. Barnard writes from Wichita, Kas., enclosing his subscription to the Enterprise, and congratulating us on the election of Foster and Horner, adding the New country of Republicans only, and the "all well" answers inquiries as to the health of his family.

—Sarah C. Woolsey, well known as "Susan Coolidge," and not so well known as H. H. Hunt, has, jointly with the authors of the Saxo Holm Stories, is coming out in a new book, for the first time having her own name on the title page. It is a revised edition of Mrs. Delaney's "Autobiography."

—Dr. McClaran, who has been very sick for the last three weeks, is still confined to the house and bed, but at this writing there seems to be some abatement in the violence of his symptoms and an improvement looking towards final recovery. We, together with an anxious public, hope soon to see him on the street and able to resume his extensive practice.

—Missionary Convention.

—Thursday last there was held in the Congregational Church, a convention, a meeting designed to explain, inform and urge upon the attention of the church, the various missionary enterprises of their denomination. The very muddy roads prevented so large an attendance from other towns as had been anticipated; but the occasion was an interesting one. Rev. Dr. Wolcott, of Cleveland, Pres. Fairchild, of Oberlin, Rev. Dr. Brown, of New York, and Geo. Gam, a converted Chinaman, laboring among his people in San Francisco, Rev. R. B. Howard, associate editor of the Advance of Chicago, Rev. D. Z. Sheffield, returned missionary from China, and Rev. Powell, who spoke in behalf of the Freedmen, were the speakers from abroad.

—Dr. Wolcott's theme was the Home Mission Work. Dr. Brown represented the Church Extension, deploring the apathy of the church, and showing that what had been accomplished where the work of the Congregational Union had been taken up. 1080 churches had received aid from the Union. $45,000 churches they had aided in establishing. It is in reality a great loan fund for pushing the outposts of Zion on the frontier; and Church extension by similar methods is considered one of the most fruitful enterprises among all Christian denominations; the Methodist Episcopal especially having aided in building a very large number of churches in the West and South.

—President Fairchild spoke in behalf of the Oberlin Theological Seminary. The missionary from China exhibited tablets and idols illustrating the ancestral worship of the Chinese, and his narration of the drouth, famine and pestilence of '77, and the efforts of Christians to aid the starving millions made it seem indeed a vivid reality. Mr. Geo. Gam's account of his conversion and Christian experience was listened to with close attention. His appearance in his native costume attracted considerable notice upon our streets. He was the guest of S. K. Launton over night. Such a company of speakers, prepared to give so much information interesting to Christians, should have had a larger crowd to hear them.

—The day was bright, stores and shops crowded, business men hurried with demands of the public, and a funeral in the afternoon, altogether prevented many who expected to attend.

—Eye, Ear and Deformities.

—One or more of the Surgeons of the Central Surgical Infirmary, of Indianapolis, Ind., will visit personally, Wellington, at the American House, Monday, December 10th, and Oberlin, Thursday, Nov. 27th. All afflicted with any disease of the eye or ear, curable, or eyes, club foot, spinal curvature, pleurisy or chronic diseases, etc., can consult them free of charge. Artificial eyes inserted. Remember the dates.

—Late News Notes.

—Ross H. Powers, who unconsciously walked off the viaduct and fell through the draw, falling seventy feet and breaking his leg, was a sober, industrious New London citizen, who with Henry Saxton had gone to Cleveland and secured positions on a construction train. It was a very singular coincidence that both young men should come to a violent death within a few hours of each other. A number of Wellington people went Sunday afternoon to New London to the funeral of Saxton, who was run over and instantly killed on the track, both legs being severed from the body.

—A railroad is to be built from Beaver, Pa., to Chicago Junction, in this State, through Wooster, which will complete the line from Baltimore and Chicago.

—The chair factory at Bedford burned Thursday night last. Loss $20,000, and no insurance.

—A fond mother at Marietta, O., after drawing a $1150 pension at the bank, bought her little boy a toy pistol, and was rewarded by being shot dead with it within an hour.

—The Derby Daily Telegraph is the name of the first daily paper in England started by a woman. Mrs. E. M. Pike is the publisher.

—A cone-shaped cloud swept down upon a farm in New Lyme, O., Friday evening, and destroyed houses, barn, out-buildings and contents, without killing any body.

—The schooner Breed, loaded with wheat, capsized and foundered on Lake Erie last week, the crew, except one man, being lost.

—Advertised Letters.

—List of letters remaining unclaimed in Wellington P. O., for the week ending Nov. 15, 1879:

—Mrs. Sarah Clifford, Hiram N. Smith, Rev. Geo. W. Moore.

—J. T. Oakes, P. M.

—When calling for the above please say "advertised."

—If you want to get rid of pimples, boils, tetter, etc., use "Lindsey's Blood Searcher." Sold by all druggists.

—The secret of long life is to keep the liver perfectly healthy which is best accomplished by using only "Sellers' Liver Pills."

—Bad Blood.—A serious emolite occurred on John street last night, between two horny handed sons of toil, which resulted in a broken arm for Smith and a cracked rib for Jackson. For bad blood there is nothing equal to Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup, which drives out all impurities like magic.

—Dollars, which might otherwise be thrown away by resorting to ineffectual medicines, are saved by purchasing that inexpensive specific for bodily pain and remedy for affections of the throat, lungs, stomach, liver and bowels, Thomas' Eclectic Oil, which does not deteriorate, and is thorough and pure. Public attention is called to advertisement in another column.

—Probably no one preparation has received as much praise from its patrons, nor is so deserving of commendation as Hall's Hair Renewer! We but echo the voice of the millions who have used it when we pronounce it the best hair dressing in the world. It stands unrivaled. Those who are afflicted with disease of the scalp accompanied with itching or irritation, find relief and renewal in its valuable remedy. When the hair is inclined to fall out, a moderate use of the Renewer will strengthen the roots of the hair and preserve it, and if it exhibits a tendency to turn gray it will restore the natural color.—Fulton (Mo.) Telegraph.

—The Best I Ever Knew of.

—J. G. Starkey, a prominent influential citizen of Iowa City, says: "I have had the dyspepsia and liver complaint for several years, and have used every remedy I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your Shiloh's Vitalizer advertised in our paper. It is certainly the best remedy I ever knew of." Price 75 cents. Sold by Everett & Starr.

—A Mother's Grief.

—The pride of a mother, and joy of a home, are her children, hence her grief when sickness enters and takes them away. Take warning then, that you are running a terrible risk, if they are really coughing, croup or whooping cough, which lead to consumption. If you do not attend to it at once, Shiloh's Consumption Cure is guaranteed to cure them. Price 10 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Price 25 cts. Sold by Everett & Starr.

—A Surprised Physician.

—A dying patient recovers through the intervention of a humble German.—Some weeks ago Dr. G., a very respectable and widely-known physician living on C— street, was called to attend a very complicated case of Rheumatism. Upon arriving at the house he found a man about forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame dangerously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knees and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed, and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The clothing was so swollen with the disease that it was necessary to remove it, and the patient was found to be in a very alarming condition. The doctor was called to the patient's bedside, and he found the patient in a very alarming condition. The doctor was called to the patient's bedside, and he found the patient in a very alarming condition.

—The doctor said that his assistance would be of no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door, weeping. At this critical hour, a neighbor, a poor and humble German shoemaker, appeared to the grief-stricken family as a saving angel. He had heard of the desperate case, and he had now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. As a drowning man will catch at straws, so the poor wife applied this remedy; she had no hope, but would try anything, as a matter of duty. The first application eased the patient very much; and after a few days they were again, and with relief of wonder, the pain vanished entirely! Every subsequent application improved the sufferer, and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after, he was indeed surprised, for, instead of a corpse, he found a new-made man.—Exchange.

—Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

—The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all kinds of skin eruptions. This salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. W. Houghton.

—Notice.

—Being the authorized agent of E. B. Mallory, I have appointed A. L. Dewey my agent at Wellington, to handle his brand of oysters and will at all times guarantee our wares. Any goods not No. 1 at time of receiving them, can be returned to him, and prices at all times as low as the lowest.

—W. C. BRACE, Wellington, Oct. 25, 1879.

—Dotted Than Gold.

—The grand climax of success is at last achieved. The poor, rejected, the sick and walk, the rich back in the sun—shining of perfect health. The physical sufferer of the human frame need no longer be bothered. Dr. King's California Golden Compound for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Coming up of Food, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Biliousness, General Debility, Prostration and Loss of Spirit. This wonderful remedy will positively cure, and that where every remedy has failed. To prove that this wonderful remedy will do all we claim for it you are presented with a trial bottle free of cost, by which you will readily perceive its wonderful curative qualities, and which will show you what a regular one dollar size bottle will do. For sale by J. W. Houghton.

JUST FOUND OUT

That the place to buy Good Oysters is at the Star Bakery. We are selling more Oysters than ever, and on Friday and Saturday of this week we will have a fresh lot on hand; especially for Saturday's trade, and if you want them to eat on Sunday they will be in good order.

Next week Thursday will be Thanksgiving, and for that occasion we will have on hand some 20 or 30 gallons, fresh and nice. Remember that our brands are solid meats.

Oysters and lunch served at my rooms every day. No pains will be spared to please all who come.

My canned goods were bought when prices were very low, and I will sell them the same.

Rooms just North of Rinsinger's store.

DO TELL!

To say that we sell Oysters cheaper than every body else, and that we buy them less than our neighbors, is quite a thin soup. It is very suggestive of watered stock.

We simply buy at as low prices as we can, from the old reliable packer, O. S. Mallory, of Baltimore, whose oysters have been sold in this market for over twenty-five years—every body knows their quality—and we sell them at their value.

We are not the fellow that is always promising to sell goods at less price than all others. But we are the fellow that never fails to keep his word. Hence, from the 20th day of Dec. 1879, to the 2nd day of Jan. 1880, to everybody that buys a pound of oysters or a dollar's worth of coffee of us, we will give a half pound of pure mixed candy; and the tea will be as good for the money as can be bought in town, and those who have used our coffee say it is better.

We can accommodate buckwheat flapjack eaters with the genuine York State State.

Our Crockery and Glassware stock is more complete than ever before, and we think, the best in town.

Come in and buy cheese, crackers, hominy, dried sweet corn, rice, molasses, syrup, soap, starch, bluing, sugar, figs, bird seed, hanging baskets, flower pots, washboards, pop corn, pails, crocks, jugs, nuts, lamps, candy, pickles, and dried beef shavings. Our hanging lamps are all new, bright and beautiful. Our specialty is to sell better coffee than any body else, at what it is worth.

Choice table butter and fresh eggs wanted.

BOWLEY & HALL.

Trees.

Fruit, shade, ornamental of all varieties and grades. C. W. Baker of Painesville, O., who has been selling and delivering stock from the nursery stores & Harriet of that place is receiving many words of commendation for the very excellent quality of his trees. His customers uniformly express entire satisfaction with both quality and prices. He will continue to canvass in this vicinity all winter and will fill orders taken, next Spring. Reserve your orders until he calls on you and gives you prices. 6-4m

The Independent!

THE INDEPENDENT appeals to cultivated men and women. It discusses current questions of religion, philosophy and politics. It is wide-awake. It is not afraid. It is full of life and vigor. It is a fresh truth. It has numerous departments. It publishes more religious discussion than the religious reviews, more poetry and stories than the popular monthlies, and gives more information than any annual cyclopedia. It has a larger corps of the most famous writers than any other journal of its sort in the country. It makes strong friends of those who read it. Try it for next year.

We have purchased the newspaper copyright of the Boston Monday lectures for 1879-1880, to be delivered, as heretofore, by the Rev. JOSEPH COOK, beginning Nov. 13th, and the same will be given verbatim to the readers of the Independent weekly, together with the Preludes, after revision by the author.

Sermons by Eminent Clergymen in all parts of the country will continue to be printed.

PREMIUMS.

We have decided to withdraw on the 31st day of December, 1879, all the premiums now offered by us to subscribers, a full list of which appears below; so that those who would avail themselves of our liberal offers must do so before the 31st of December, 1879.

WORCESTER'S UNABRIDGED Pictorial Quarto Dictionary.

Bound in Sheep. 1854 pages. Over 1,000 Illustrations. Issues of 1879.

Our contract with the publishers of the Dictionary expires December 31st, 1879, and we desire to continue the contract beyond that date on the same favorable terms. We are, therefore, compelled to withdraw the Dictionary premium at the expiration of the present year; but our subscribers and the public in general may avail themselves of the surplus of the Dictionary by purchasing it at a special price of $9.00. We will send the Dictionary to any person who will send us the names of the New York Standard and Nine Dollars; or who will, on receiving his own subscription in advance, send us two New Names and additional $5.00; or who will renew his own subscription for one year, in advance, and send us $5.00; or for a new subscriber for three years and $10.00.

The regular price of the Dictionary alone, at all the book-stores is $10.00, while the Worcester's Dictionary is $9.00. Both the Dictionary and three subscriptions, under this extraordinary offer, can, therefore, be had together for only $3.00.

REV. JOSEPH COOK'S BOOKS, entitled "BIOLOGY," "TANACENTRALISM," "ORTHODOXY," "CONSCIENCE," "HEREDITY," and "MARRIAGE," embodying the author's previous remarkable Monday Lectures. They are published in handsome bound form by James R. Osgood & Co., Boston. We will mail a copy of either volume, postpaid, to any subscriber who sends us two New Names and additional $5.00; or who will renew his own subscription for one year, in advance, and send us $5.00; or for a new subscriber for three years and $10.00.
